

Is My Medicine Legal YET?

www.IMMLY.org & www.JRMMA.org

For immediate release: Monday, Feb. 22, 2010

Is My Medicine Legal YET?: IMMLY to participate in "Grass Roots Evening" of Medical Marijuana discussion at UW-Waukesha Monday Feb. 22

IMMLY Founder Jacki Rickert and director of communications Gary Storck, a Waukesha native who now lives in Madison, will participate in "A Grassroots Evening" at the University of Wisconsin-Waukesha. The event will be held in Room N133 on Monday, Feb. 22, 2010 from 7-9pm, and is presented by the UW-Waukesha Students for a Democratic Society and the popular Facebook medical cannabis advocacy group, "Wisconsin Residents for Assembly Bill 554".

The event will be a forum featuring the Senate sponsor of AB554/SB368, the Jacki Rickert Medical Marijuana Act, Sen. Jon Erpenbach (D-Waunakee), along with Rickert, appearing by video due to health issues, Storck and other medical cannabis patients.

"A Grass Roots Evening" also includes an appearance by another Waukesha native, singer-songwriter Rick Harris. Harris will perform a song he wrote after playing a benefit performance for IMMLY and meeting Jacki Rickert, "Legal Medicine Blues", which has become the anthem of the Wisconsin Medical Marijuana Movement.

The event is free but seating is limited to 178 seats, so arrive early. Doors are at 6pm, and the event is scheduled for 7-9pm. A Q&A session will follow the speeches, time permitting. UW-Waukesha is located at 1500 N. University Drive in Waukesha. For more information visit IMMLY.org or JRMMA.org or call (608) 241-8922.

Is My Medicine Legal YET? is a Mondovi and Madison Wisconsin based grass roots patient and caregiver organization dedicated to advancing public education about the medicinal benefits of cannabis. For further information contact Jacki Rickert 715-926-4950 or Gary Storck at 608.241.8922 or visit the IMMLY websites at www.IMMLY.org and www.JRMMA.org.

###